PANTHER SENTINEL

Volume XXVI Hartnell College, Salinas, Calif., Friday, Oct. 12, 1956 Number 2

Rules Announced For Homecoming Queen Contest

The eighteenth annual Hartnell College Homecoming queen contest was the main topic of discussion at the October 4 meeting of the Interclub Council in Room 3.

Each club may sponsor a coed as its candidate in the contest. The successful candidate will reign over the annual Homecoming festivities November 2 and 3. The queen will be honored at the Homecoming tea, alumni dinner, and the Hartnell-Menlo football game.

Reigning over the after-game dance will be one of the duties of the queen, attended by her ladies-in-waiting. The queen's court will consist of the finalists in the contest.

Campaign week is October 22-31. During the week posters of the candidates will be displayed on the campus. Each candidate may post five posters. However, only three of the five posters may contain photographs of the candidate. This ruling was established due to the limited budget of some organizations. Posters must be approved by the main office. Except for the limited number of posters of a candidate, no other restrictions were named.

Coronation on November 2

Election date of the Homecoming queen is October 31. The student body will participate in the voting. Name of the winning candidate will not be disclosed until the coronation. Coronation is set for November 2, with the student body in attendance.

Judy Young, coed from Hollister, accepted the honors as 1955 Hartnell College Homecoming queen. Miss Young was sponsored by Phi Beta Lambda, the business club.

MPC Student President To Illustrate Keg-Pushing

Editor's Note: If the Keg is returned to its rightful post of honor by tonight, there's a bet between the student body presidents of Hartnell and Monterey Peninsula College—one president or the other will be seen pushing the Keg by his nose around the rival campus after the annual Thanksgiving football battle. The loser's prexy pushes—on the winner's campus.

That was the agreement reached between the two dignitaries recently when they had lunch together here at Hartnell. This week, El Yanqui, MPC publication, featured a well-considered appeal by their student body president, Ed McEvoy, which is well worth quoting. We give it to you intact. . . .

Recently the "Keg" mysteriously disappeared from its rightful resting place in Hartnell's trophy case. The majority of MPC students immediately acclaimed the action as a reasonable expression of school spirit.

Is this a "reasonable expression of school spirit"? Is it reasonable for the student body of a college to condone theft and vandalism under any circumstance? Merely because these action are "traditional" or "adventurous" does not alter the fact that they are palpably silly and an expression of general lack of reflection. It could even be argued that because these actions are considered "traditional" or "adventurous," they are more likely to be unreasonable.

When seriously considered, this theft shows an unwarranted questioning of the football team's ability. The "Keg" is a prize to be won, and loses its meaning unless the winning team keeps it. By allowing the "Keg" to be kept under the care of MPC students prior to Thanksgiving, we are depriving the team of a chance to capture it.

The situation can be remedied. Gus Andersen, Hartnell student body president, has agreed to a bet. The associated student president of the losing school will, at noon of the Monday following Thanksgiving, push the "Keg" with his nose around the central area of the winner's campus, providing that the "Keg" is returned before October 12. Therefore, "Keg" thieves, you can insure the football team of a chance to win the "Keg," and also insure the student body of an opportunity to enjoy watching Hartnell's chief executive push the "Keg" around our lawns. More important, the return of this symbol will justify its position as an honored trophy.

JAZZ-MODERNE

By BOB SCAGLIOTTI

Hello, everyone. As you probably know, the "Jazz-moderne" column is a new look in the Panther Sentinel this year. The contents of this column will mostly be in the jazz vein with much of the space dedicated to modern jazz.

In each issue I will attempt to devote the column to one jazz artist or jazz group, as well as including a paragraph or two concerning the jazz happenings around northern California.

Next Monday evening at the San Jose Civic Auditorium the 1956 "Jazz at the Philharmonic" troupe will give its annual jazz concert. Among the jazz artists that will present at the concert will be the Oscar Peterson trio, the Gene Krupa quartet, Ella Fitzgerald and the newcomers, Modern Jazz quartet.

For you regular "Jazz at the Philharmonic" enthusiasts, the Modern Jazz quartet is a new sight. Led by pianist John Lewis, the M.J.Q. includes jazz musicians from the east coast who are of the so-called "cool school." Its personnel includes John Lewis on piano, Milt Jackson on vibraphone, Percy Heath on bass with Connie Kay and Kenny Clarke alternating on percussion. All five are excellent technicians and well schooled in both the jazz and classical fields.

With the addition of the gently swinging Modern Jazz quartet, plus the rocking Flip Phillips and the incomparable voice of Ella, this year's concert should be appealing to any and every jazz enthusiast.

To the readers who are interested in attending any of the three northern California JATP concerts, the tickets may be purchased at the box offices. Tomorrow the concert will be held in Oakland, Sunday evening at San Francisco, and Monday night in San Jose.

Just released . . . While browsing through the L.P. collection at the local record shop I ran across quite a few interesting albums.

Panther's Claw

By ROY BAYFORD

HERE AND THERE: Notice Lowell Webb around the campus again. If you see a crowd of gals, then look for Webb—seems to have the "Pressley" way about him. When you're back at SPS, Webb, be sure to look up a couple of fellows that started that "new club." They might be able to help you out. . . . Sherrie Hutchinson is toting a sling nowadays for a sprained wrist—no, she didn't hit him—the story has it that she sprained it while parking a car, of all things. . . . We know coffee is expensive, but did you know it's expensive enough to be watched? Let it be known, Tom, the cafeteria staff now has eyes in the back of their heads—that's with the aid of a mirror. . . . Some of the fellows have a head start for the coming Whiskerino. They chose to lose their razors before college started.

CONGRATS: For Bill and Gloria Gibbs, the stork arrived during the summer. . . . Marilyn Ingols, ex-student body secretary, who walked the long mile last Saturday. . . . Ed Walters and Jim Chapman both are awaiting Uncle Sam's leisure, both have passed exams for the air force.

SPORTZ: New World Series records were set at the lounge last week. All the chairs and sofas were packed. Late comers were content to stand in the aisles. Total receipts ran into the $000's, not counting the nickel that was dropped and lost among the crowd. The refreshment stand adjoining the grounds was rushed with business. No fights were reported and nobody was fortunate enough to leave with a foul ball, although many came close.

Doris Kitamura Heads Art Club

The Alpha Delta Epsilon, art society of Hartnell College, at its last meeting elected club officers for this semester.

President of the organization is Doris Kitamura, an art major from Salinas. Paul Dumbrigue was elected vice-president; Margaret McCaffrey, secretary; Martha Lou Cowles, treasurer; Mitzi Oka, social activities chairman; Myrleen Fisher and Ray Tarp, co-chairmen. I.C.C. representative is Don Shirk.

Mr. Leon Amyx and Mr. Thomas Silliman are club advisers.

Activities for the club were discussed. Proposed activities include the sponsoring of a dance, sale of water-color works, and trips to art galleries.

To begin its social year, Alpha Delta Epsilon has planned a potluck barbecue to be held tomorrow at 6 p.m. at the San Benancio Canyon home of Adviser Leon Amyx. Members may bring guests.

Bi-monthly meetings of Alpha Delta Epsilon are held every other Tuesday at 12:15 p.m. in Room 31. Both art students and non-art students are invited to join.

Among them were "The Four Brothers," by the Budapest String quartet; and "Pressley Plays Puccini," which is an instrumental recently cut by Elvis in Hollywood. Elvis also has an unusual album which includes 12 Christmas carols. Big Jay McNeely's latest L.P. is one which should be a big seller and it is titled "Concerto for Tenor Sax."

Panthers Triumph Over Pirates 19-13

Hartnell Calls Off the 'Jinx' With First Win of the Season

By BOB SCAGLIOTTI

The Panther football team snapped its three-game losing streak Saturday night at King City's Memorial Stadium by trouncing the Ventura Pirates 19 to 13. It was a rough and rather loosely played battle with frequent penalties and untimely fumbles halting both Hartnell and Ventura offenses.

The first quarter was scoreless 15 minutes with neither team able to put together an offensive thrust. But early in the second quarter after an exchange of punts, Darwin Tomasini, Panther center, recovered a Ventura fumble on the Ventura 46-yard line. Darryl Goodwin on two successive line plays gained two yards.

Then Ron Critchfield, Hartnell quarterback, working off the spread formation with a third down and eight yards to go, completed a 14-yard pass play to halfback Darryl Goodwin. Critchfield, still utilizing the spread, added seven more yards as he weaved his way down to the 18-yard line. Dave Crocker then added one yard. Again using the spread formation, quarterback Critchfield completed a pass to his end, Dick Kretz, good for 17 yards and a touchdown. Dave Crocker's kick was not good and with four minutes of the second quarter left, Hartnell led 6 to 0. Time soon ran out, so after 30 minutes of play Hartnell led the Ventura Pirates 6 to 0.

Hartnell received the opening kickoff of the second half on their own 37-yard line, and five plays later were in scoring position, but a Ventura back intercepted a Critchfield pass on the 22-yard line, removing the Panther threat.

Ventura drove up to the 45-yard line, where an exchange of fumbles found them with a first down on their own 40. The Pirates then put on their only offensive thrust of the evening as they drove deep into Hartnell territory, but Panther guard Tony Vallejo then pounced on a Ventura fumble on the Hartnell 18-yard line.

Four plays later Ventura blocked Dave Crocker's attempted punt and scored on a quarterback sneak good for nine yards by their quarterback, Hageman. Hageman then broke a precedent among modern football circles as he dropkicked the point after the touchdown. At this time, Ventura took the lead 7 to 6.

Following the kickoff, right halfback Jim Fahey thrilled the fans with a 34-yard run back up to the 44-yard line. Hartnell drove deep into Ventura's territory on runs by Ron Bernal plus a 34-yard pass play from Ron Critchfield to Dick Kretz. It was on the 8-yard line that the Ventura team put on a determined goal line stand and held the Panthers from scoring their second touchdown as the gun sounded ending the third quarter.

Unable to move out, Ventura punted out to the 30-yard line. Fahey went up the middle for five yards. Bernal added three. Fahey went up the middle again for seven yards picking up a first down on the 15-yard line.

Bernal gained two more. Fahey picked up two. Fahey then, on an attempted pitchout from Critchfield, was dragged down for an eight-yard loss. On the very next play the Panthers moved the ball down to the one-yard line, on a pass interference play, where Ron Bernal carried it over. Crocker's kick hit the goalpost, so the score remained 12 to 7 in favor of Hartnell.

Four plays later Panther end Paul Stewart recovered a fumble on the Ventura 44 setting up another touchdown drive. Halfback Dave Crocker, working off an option play, completed a 20-yard sideline pass to Dick Kretz, putting the ball on the 24-yard line. At this point Ventura was responsible for a personal foul and was penalized to the 10-yard line. Ron Bernal fought his way up for nine yards.

Panthers Recover

Following an offside penalty, quarterback Ron Critchfield completed a pass to end Paul Stewart for Hartnell's third touchdown. Crocker's kick split the uprights making the score 19 to 7 in favor of the Panthers.

Ventura did not score again until the last minute of the game, when a pass interference penalty put the ball on the Hartnell 16-yard line. Quarterback Hageman completed a pass to his end Webster, good for 16 yards and a touchdown. Hageman's dropkick was wide but he received another try following a Hartnell penalty and made his second attempt good.

Seconds later the final gun sounded, with Hartnell winning by a score of 19 to 13.

Panthers Flying To Boise Battle

Hard in pursuit of another win following the 19-13 victory over Ventura Saturday night, Hartnell's Panthers will fly to Boise, Idaho, to play the Boise Junior College team on September 13.

Hartnell's 40 football players will leave the Salinas airport Friday at 9 a.m. on a chartered C-47. They are scheduled to return Sunday at noon.

A chartered rooster's bus is scheduled to leave Salinas at 8 p.m. today for Boise. Individual cost of the trip, not including meals, is

Harts' Offense Is Impressive Despite Loss To Bakersfield

Hartnell's Panthers dropped a hard-fought football game to the Bakersfield Renegades, 26 to 13, Saturday, Sept. 29, at the local stadium. Led by quarterback Ron Critchfield, the Panthers nearly upset the team rated number two among the junior college teams in the nation.

After a scoreless first quarter, Bakersfield took a 7 to 0 lead as the fullback Ellis went four yards for the touchdown.

One minute later quarterback Ron Critchfield carried the ball for 49 yards and a Hartnell touchdown. Dave Crocker kicked the extra point to tie the score.

Penalty Costly

Hartnell nearly had a halftime lead as they scored a touchdown in the last play of the second quarter; but a penalty nullified it, leaving the Panthers with a 7-7 halftime score. (Motion pictures of the game later showed, however, that no lineman was downfield—hence the penalty was unjustified.)

Bakersfield took a lead in the third quarter as halfback Bowser took off on a 66-yard jaunt for a touchdown. The conversion was good and the Renegades had a 14 to 7 lead.

A short time later, after recovering a Hart fumble near the mid-field stripe, Bakersfield set up a touchdown on a 54-yard pass play and scored on a one-yard plunge by the halfback, Fitzgerald. The try for the extra point failed, so after three quarters of play Hartnell was trailing Bakersfield by the score of 20 to 7.

Hartnell Fights Back

Hartnell scored their last touchdown of the game in the fourth after a Critchfield to Bernal pass good for 20 yards and an 11-yard run by Critchfield. Hartnell scored with Dave Crocker carrying the pigskin over from the one-yard line. Crocker's kick was blocked, so the score remained 20 to 13.

Bakersfield scored their last touchdown as they returned the Hart kickoff 51 yards in five plays. Their conversion attempt also failed, leaving the score at 26 to 13.

$24. The bus will return Sunday.

Boise's J.C. team is ranked among the nation's best, with a record of three wins to no losses. Their latest victory was scored over the Yuba College team, which is rated the number four junior college team in the country.

The Idaho team uses the single wing, and T-formation, and reportedly makes full use of a big, fast backfield.

Vet's Day Game Is With Sequoia

By BUDD PEASLEE

On October 1, Coach Ed Adams met with members of the Veterans' Coordinating Council to finalize plans and arrangements for the Veteran's Day football game November 10 with College of Sequoia. The veterans' groups were represented by Harold Hiserman, commander of Salinas Post No. 31 of the American Legion, and Paul Kane, also of that organization.

Six thousand tickets are being printed for the game and the veterans will begin an intensive sales campaign in the near future. Outside tickets will be sold for $1.25 with the extra 25 cents going into the Veteran's welfare fund for the relief of needy veterans and to pay for Christmas boxes of food sent to destitute families during the holiday season. Student prices will remain the same.

Fort Ord Band

This year the celebration of Veteran's Day will become a joint effort of Hartnell College and the various veteran's groups of this area. The veterans will produce the halftime entertainment by conducting a flag raising, furnishing a speaker, and arranging for demonstrations by several marching groups which include the Fort Ord marching band. It is anticipated that arrangements will become an annual affair of lasting nature, and will become an understood custom of this area.
